

MEMBERSHIP IN THE JUNIOR DIVISION OF OFMC GENERAL INFORMATION

Membership in the Junior Division of OFMC is open to individuals and organizations whose members are in preschool through 12th grade and not over 18 years of age. They shall be classified as active or associate.

A. Active members.

- Active membership may be either organizational or individual.
- Any member of Junior organizations, such as bands, orchestras, choirs and choruses may become active members and participate in the business affairs and activities of OFMC.
- An individual who is not a member of any federated club may become a special member upon payment of individual dues of $13. The teacher is required to be a member of the Federation also, either through an adult club ($6) or as an individual member (Senior Special), which is $50. Contact Jeannine Morris, State Treasurer, jkmorris200@embarqmail.com.

B. Associate members

Junior organizations, such as bands, orchestras, choirs and choruses not wishing to participate actively in the business affairs and activities of OFMC. They may participate in OFMC activities only as a group.
